The Garden Grapevine

July 2021

Rosie was born in Young America (near Barton). She was raised in Newburg and was the oldest of ten children. She attended Holy Trinity Catholic grade school in Newburg. Rosie knew her future husband, Roman, since they were in grade school. They met again later at church when Roman was wearing his Army uniform. They married in 1948 and lived in Newburg for a year. After that they bought a farm located just out of Waubeka where they raised their eight children.

Rosie loves visits with her family. Some of the activities Rosie enjoys are playing Bingo and participating in the Catholic offerings like Rosary and Mass when offered. She likes talking to people from her old parish, St. Mary's, Little Kohler. Some of her free time things she likes are watching game shows and cheering on the Packers when on TV.
