The Garden Grapevine

October 21

Resident of the Month- Harvey D.

Harvey grew up in Wilson, MI on a 40 acre farm. They grew a lot of beans and also corn. They had a few animals on their farm, such as cows, chickens and horses. Harvey is one of five siblings, he had 2 brothers and 2 sisters. Harvey moved to Milwaukee in 1955 for work, where he became an operating engineer for the union where he worked for 40 plus years. Harvey also met his wife Ione in Milwaukee. They got married October 17,1958. Harvey and Ione have three children: Ranee, Danielle, and Craig. Harvey built a home in Carney, MI for his family which they called paradise. They lived there for 20 years. During this time Harvey made 10 gallons of maple syrup a year, he had 3 gardens and he did a lot of canning. Harvey was very well known for his pickles. Everyone in town called them Harvey's pickles and were said to be the best. Harvey also enjoyed hunting and fishing in his free time and helping everyone out. Harvey moved to Kettle Moraine Gardens in February 2021. We are very happy to have him as part of our family.
