A Prayer for the New Year

*Lord, Whether I leave behind a year of joy or of trials and difficulties,
I pause to give thanks. Thank you for being with me every day of every year.*

Jesus said,

“Don’t let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me.

John 14:1

Kettle Moraine Gardens Resident of the Month - Roger G

Roger is a quiet soul with a strong faith. He and his wife belong to the WELS church and are still very active at St. Lucas.

Roger was a gunsmith in the past and also a hunter of every kind of animal found in Wisconsin. He also hunted Elk out in Colorado! Roger took part in trapshooting which helped keep up his skills. In talking with Roger, he said he likes watching his westerns and if he could go back in time, he would be in that era.

Roger was very athletic growing up and spent much time at Turner Hall getting exercise. When he was in High School, he participated in Football and even Basketball for a few years.

Roger's youth was spent in Boltonville in the Farmington area. His parents ran a local tavern/grocery store there since 1906. Roger helped at the store while growing up. After graduation from Kewaskum High School, Roger went on to a technical school to learn the trades of Carpentry and masonry.

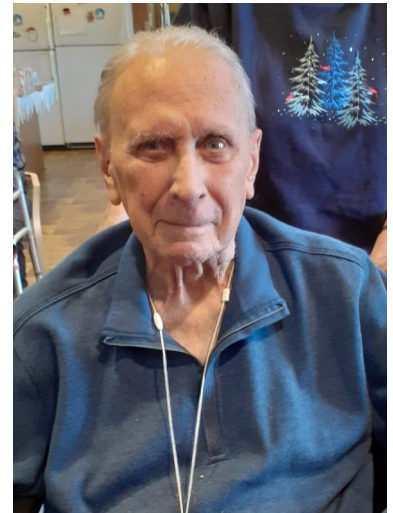

One of his passions was model building. That proved a good thing because Roger's career was as a professional model maker for 27 years at West Bend Company and for 17 years at Regal Ware. He enjoyed his jobs immensely.

Roger met the love of his life, Judy while in High School and they have been married now for over 65 years. They have four adult children, ten grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Roger is a man who enjoys interacting with others to "hear" their stories. In his personal time, you can find him watching westerns like Gunsmoke or enjoying a laugh with Hogan's Heroes. He also listens to many different books on tape.

Roger enjoys trivia and if you ask him anything about the Civil War, he will astound you with the details he knows.

Congratulations on being our Resident of the Month.

You have to accept whatever comes and the only important thing is that you meet it with the best you have to give.
